Training bits

Saukenuk Cub Scout Leaders: This is a reminder about what it takes to be a trained leader & to clarify the Cub Scout Leader Specifics.

To be a "Trained" leader, you need all three parts of the Cub Scout Leader Specifics. This includes: Intro to Cub Scouting, How We Have Fun, Cub Scout Leader Specific training in your leadership position for your Unit

Also, you will need: Fast Start for your leadership position (on-line), Youth Protection (on-line), This is Scouting (on-line)

We will be presenting the Intro to

"Cub Scouting & How We Have Fun" at the January 2010 Round table for those that missed it in September & for those that need it as new leaders.

The Training Committee will meet with a Pack or Packs to help train their leaders. Please let us know if you would like the committee to meet with a group of leaders from your Pack.

‘Find the Good’

I believe the founder of the Scouting movement, Sir Robert Baden-Powell said it best.

“The sport of Scouting is to find the good in every boy and develop it.”

As volunteers for one of the nations leading youth programs we are set up for success and at the same time charged with great responsibility.

We are set up for success with a multitude of outstanding tools, resources, and 100 years of tradition at our finger tips as we try to teach the youth of today life skills that will last a life time.

On the other hand, we are also given much responsibility as we look over and care for our youth. We are not just called to gather the ‘good kids’ and teach them how to tie knots and build bird houses. We are called to reach out to kids from every walk of life and develop them into strong, upstanding, confident members of society.

I thank you for joining us in this movement of finding the good in every boy and for your tireless effort in developing the youth of your community into stronger members of society.

My challenge for you is to not get bogged down by the difficulties of your role but to always remember the good that you are doing it each child’s life.

Remember, we don’t always see the fruits of our labor immediately but they are always there.

Scout Law: Courteous

“We are what we repeatedly do.”

-Aristotle

Popcorn Recap...

As we wrap up another year of popcorn sales we would like to thank everyone that has helped us to make the 2009 sale a success.

A special thank you goes out to Scott Stinson for his tireless effort as our District Popcorn Kernel.

We would also like to thank Kathleen Tarnow, Jamie Petersen, Stephanie Genova, Robin and Jim VanWychen, and Deb and Kevin Scott for their help on Saturday of our ‘Take Order’ popcorn distribution day.

Finally we would like to thank everyone who came out to the warehouse on Friday to help sort the district orders.

Saukenuk Want Ads (Looking for ways to get involved?)

We have two outstanding events coming up in January and are looking for a few individuals to help out with each.

Cub Scout Lock-In

On January 16th-17th hundreds of scouts will take over the Two Rivers YMCA in Moline for hours of overnight fun. We are looking for a few individuals to spend a few hours or even all night to help out with the event.

Klondike Derby

On January 23rd Boy Scouts from across the district will gather to test their winter survival skills at Brown’s Farm in Geneseo. We are looking for a few individuals to spend the day help out.

If you are interested in helping with either of these two upcoming events please e-mail Colbie Andes at colbie.andes@scouting.org
